5 of 6 review helpful Poorly set out By savage I bought this book based on the publishers blurb in This is an unfortunate demonstration of the major pitfall of buying books from If I had looked at the book in a bookstore I would never have purchased it I sincerely doubt anyone would. The book is poorly executed primarily in its index or rather series of indexes which are set out so to make as little practical. Hidden New England Features a virtual bed and breakfast guide with over 200 country inns coastal hotels and mountain lodges. The region's landmarks are brought to life with interesting historical facts and stories. Carefully mapped out driving tours are included for the best of fall foliage viewing.
