4 of 4 review helpful A pictorial love song to New Hampshire By Angie Boyter When artist Sue Anne Bottomley and her husband retired to New Hampshire she chose a cleverly artistic way to rediscover her home state she decided to visit and draw each of New Hampshire's 234 towns This book is the result of her two year travels From all of her drawings Bottomley selected one to represent each town. That drawing of New Hampshire is a small state but it has seven distinct and engaging regions. Colorful Journey includes an illustration and some history about every town from each region by artist Sue Anne Bottomley. From the smallest settlement to the major cities of Concord, Nashua, Manchester and Portsmouth follow along on one artist's endeavor to draw New Hampshire. Sue Anne Bottomley is a New Hampshire native. Raised in NH and Massachusetts and an art major at the University of New Hampshire.
